Then Havana-Then Spain Itself If The Haughty Spanlard Does Not Sue For Peace.

General Nelson A. Miles has arrived in Cuba and taken command of the land forces. He immediately announced in emphatic terms that the war must end quickly. So far as Santiago is concerned it did. On July 14th, two days after his arrival he was able to cable its capitula-

"General Toral has formally surrendered the troops of his army in the division of Santiago, on the terms and understanding that his troops shall be returned to Spain. General Shafter will appoint commissioners to draw up the conditions of arrangements for carrying out the terms of surrender. This is very gratifying and Gen. Shafter and the officers and men of his command are entitled to great credit for their sincerity and fortitude in overcoming the almost insuperable obstacles which they encountered. A portion of the army has been infected with yellow fever and Horse, each man bouyed up with belief efforts will be made to seperate those who are infected and those free from it, and to the seventh day after leaing Dawson, poskeep those who are still on board ships sibly the sixth. Blanco was in the palace when the li telligence reached him, and he became at staff and Gen. Arolas, of the Spanish forces, discussing the news, when he made the attempt on his life. After a struggle he was subdued and disarmed, but the shock was so severe that he was prostrated and compelled to keep to n.s bed for several days.

When he arose, his first order was to prohibit any food supplies leaving Havana for the interior town, where the distress is most severe, and where
